Having your Wedding Ceremony at Hanover House

Hanover House has been approved as one of Northern Ireland's 1st venues for civil marriage ceremonies, by Cookstown District Council under The Marriage Regulations (N.I.) 2003 Regulation 21

Due to high demand, we at Hanover decided to apply for a license to enable couples to have their wedding ceremony and reception within one venue. It has proved very popular as people do not have to travel from one destination to another.

We have facilities to enable you to hold your ceremony in one suite, then move to our riverside gardens (weather permitting) or inside areas for photographs before moving to another suite for your reception.

After the ceremony guests can have complimentary refreshments while the Bridal Party are involved in having photographs taken and our management will assist in organising guests for group shots if required.

To enable you to hold your civil ceremony in Hanover House, it is necessary to:

Contact ourselves to ensure that the date you wish to get married is available

Complete an API form which we will supply and take or send to the registrar's office (along with completed Notice forms and appropriate fee)

Comply with conditions of Acceptance and Guidance (attached to API form)
